

ERRORS ARE COSTLY TO ARLINGTON HIGH IN LEAGUE OPENER

Winthrop Trounces Local Nine In First Mystic Valley League Game At Spy Pond Field—Winthrop Scores Sixteen Runs As Crovo Fails To Show Usual Style — Werner Stars On Mound—Cool Weather and Limited Practice Blamed For Comedy of Errors

The Arlington High baseball team dropped its first Mystic Valley League game of the season Saturday when it was soundly trounced by Winthrop in a long game which lasted over three hours. In the first inning Winthrop scored nine runs off two Arlington pitchers, three more than Arlington scored the whole game. The game was a comedy of errors. Arlington lead with 11 errors that was comedy, but Winthrop took the prize for foolish plays. The cool weather might have had something to do with the wildness of the pitchers, because it was one of the wildest recorded with a total of 10 men hit by pitched balls, and thirteen passes. Winthrop made only 10 hits yet scored 16 runs, while Arlington had 5 hits and scored 3 runs. Werner for Arlington playing the role as relief pitcher starred, allowing only four hits in five innings. This was Werner's first game. Buckley performed brilliantly for Arlington in the field. Haley was the star of the Winthrop team with 14 strikeouts. Giarla with three hits out of three times at bat also starred.

First Inning
A little nervous Crovo passes the first man to face him, Buckley fields nicely, but threw low to Clarke, who obligingly opened his legs and let it go through. This upsets Crovo, who tried to bean the batter, but succeeded in throwing the ball wild. Giarla walked home with a grateful nod to Crovo. Another wild throw by Crovo, and the ball rolled to the backstop. Darnly also thanked Crovo for taking him out of the cool air in third base as he crossed the plate. Crovo struck out the next man. A bunt accounted for two out.

Arlington Pals To Hold First Practice Today

The Arlington Pals start their baseball season this evening when practice is held at Spy Pond field. There is the prospect of another good team this year with nearly an entire veteran team back. They have also picked up one or two good prospects, one new pitcher and an infielder.

The pitching staff should prove to be one of the strongest in local baseball circles. The Pals are in a league this year and will need a strong set of pitchers. Back from last year are Charlie Lane and George Alexie. Lane is at present attending Ogan Academy but will be home in time to play this summer. Alexie is around and ready to go. There have been rumors at his being traded to the Menotomy Club but from an authentic source, it is certain that he will again wear the blue and white of the Pals. The other new pitcher will be Harry Lane, (no relation to Charlie). Harry has pitched once or twice for the Pals and proved satisfactory, so that he will probably stay on. Other veterans are Dorington, Connors, Serika, Spina, Condon and Dolan.

As Dawes Opposed Bonus

Sounding a warning that inflation of currency for the purpose of paying the veterans' bonus would have a disastrous effect on the American monetary and credit system, General Charles G. Dawes, former Ambassador to Great Britain and now head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is shown as he testified before the House Ways and Means Committee. Gen. Dawes called Wall Street "a peanut stand" and said too much attention was paid to its activities.

While enroute to the Arlington News company to deliver his Sunday morning newspapers, Henry Sullivan, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sullivan of 45 Park street, Arlington, was struck and knocked down by an automobile on Broadway, near Palmer street, yesterday morning shortly before seven o'clock. The boy was brought to the Symmes Arlington Hospital where it was found that he suffered from severe bruises to his legs and arms. His condition was reported as being good, last night.

The sedan automobile which struck the boy is owned by Eric Trask of Wakefield and was operated by Arthur H. Trask of 17 Henry street, Somerville at the time of the accident.

The young newspaper boy is a pupil of grade six at St. Agnes' school and is very well known by the many families whom he serves on his newspaper route.

Francis Tank Drops From Exhaustion Near North Station—Brought To Haymarket Relief Hospital Where He Died Yesterday Afternoon—Had Been Out of Work For Some Time—Sister in Arlington Is Notified After Police Search For Relative

Exhausted after wandering for several hours through Boston's West End, Francis Tank, 37, of 126 George street, Arlington, collapsed on Causeway street, near North Station last Saturday evening. The crumpled form of the man lying on the sidewalk attracted patrolman Hennessey of Division 3, Boston police department. He assisted the Arlington man to the Haymarket Relief hospital where he died yesterday afternoon at 1.45 o'clock.

Although he had been out of work for some time, the man was well-dressed when discovered by the officer. It could not be immediately ascertained whether or not Mr. Tank suffered any internal injuries or possibly a fractured skull when he fell to the concrete pavement. There were no marks which might indicate any foul play. When questioned by the police in an attempt to locate some near relative, the Arlington man gave his address as 37 Winchester road. This proved to be erroneous and it was not until yesterday that officials at the Boston hospital found Mr. Tank's correct address to be 126 George street, Arlington, the home of his sister, Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin with whom he made his home. The Boston police immediately notified Mrs. Gilmartin through the local police and she went to Boston where she identified Mr. Tank.

Mr. Tank was a blacksmith by trade and also considered an expert woodchopper but had been unable to find work lately. He was single. He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Gilmartin and two other sisters, Mrs. Annie English of Third street, Arlington and Mrs. Helen Byrne of Chicago.

The body was claimed by Mrs. Gilmartin at the Northern Mortuary late yesterday afternoon. Funeral arrangements are as yet incomplete.

The Spotlight on Arlington Sports

Of interest to Arlington tennis players is the fact that the tapes were starting to be laid today at Spy Pond tennis courts. This is indeed great news to those who are cooped up in an office all day and who rely on the tennis courts to keep in shape.

It looks like Arlington doesn't need any pitchers this year but rather a catcher who can hold the pitchers. There isn't any pitcher in the league as good as Weidow if he can get a good catcher in there.

The trouble Saturday started around the catcher and a smart catcher could have busted it up when it started. The catchers Saturday weren't directing the pitcher so that he would keep cool. They didn't give him time to settle down but kept rushing him. They would have had plenty of trouble rushing "Rafe" Werner, because he takes his own sweet time and lets everyone else wait. The result was in five innings they only were able to get four legal hits off him in his first start.

Werner is a product of the class teams where he was too good for them but failed to get any breaks. They'll have to give him a break now after his showing against Winthrop.

Clarke doesn't belong on first base. He is a star outfielder but a horrible first baseman. He is rather a poor inspiration for the team, when the Captain makes errors, and not one but four or five. It disrupts the entire team to have a poor man on that base due to the psychological effect. The result is the ball goes up into the grandstand and there are a lot of balls thrown to that base.

"Probation After Death" Is Subject of Sermon

"Probation after Death" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 24.

The Golden Text was: "He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold" (Job 23:10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him" (I Thessalonians 5:9, 10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Universal salvation rests on progression and probation and is unattainable without them. Heaven is not a locality, but a divine state of Mind in which all the manifestations of Mind are harmonious and immortal, because sin is not there and man is found having no righteousness of his own, but in possession of 'the mind of the Lord' as the Scripture says" (p. 281).

Funeral of Arlington Man Is Held Today

Funeral services for Charles A. Parker, who died at his home, 7 Lake avenue, Arlington, last Friday took place at the Saville Funeral home, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial was in the family lot at New Boston, New Hampshire. Rev. Laurence L. Barber, pastor of the Orthodox Congregational Church officiated.

The late Mr. Parker was born in New Boston, seventy-seven years ago. He had been a resident of Arlington for fifty years, working practically all of that time for Wyman Brothers. His death came after three weeks' illness. The only surviving near relative is his niece, Miss Annie Foster, with whom he made his home.

FIRE CAUSES SLIGHT LOSS

Slight damage resulted when a fire started in a closet at the home of Mrs. John H. Benham, 49 Norcross street, Arlington last Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. The fire was extinguished in a short time.

A NEW ADDITION

A new piece of equipment was added to the collection now on hand at the Arlington police headquarters last Saturday afternoon and although it was parked alongside the department motor cycles in the station garage, it won't be used by the department officers. The new discovery happens to be a red scooter which was brought to the station by Thomas Ryan of 23 Central street, Massachusetts avenue and it will be turned over to the owner if he calls for it.

FELLSWAY CO-OPERATIVE BANK Shareholders' Meeting

In The Realm Of Sport

by Joe Doherty

Believe thou us it was some cold at the Fulton street field on Saturday as the North Medford Club whipped the High School nine. A biting wind swept across the field throughout the nine innings and the high sun had little effect. The conditions were just as tough for the players as the spectators for fly balls took fluky loops and caused some few of the 19 errors charged against the schoolboys.

Although his team was defeated by ten runs Coach Ernie Roberts was highly satisfied with the result. The boys seemingly had an inferiority complex even before the game started which they will get over when facing opponents of their own class. The pitching was as well as could be expected.

Eddie Riley, who started at short stop for the Blue and White is a born player and his five errors were quite unusual. He'll settle down and may be expected to fill in that gap left open through the graduation of George "Peanuts" Fusco.

Acting-captain Luke Bresnahan is the only veteran on the high school nine. The others are mostly Juniors whom Coach Roberts hopes to develop for another year. Brock and Hudson are Juniors and Fleming is a Soph. The other infielders, excepting Qualey, have at least one more season to take part.

Dick Peckham, other half of that twin combination that was selected the best among the forwards in the Interscholastic hockey league during the winter, was slated to start in center field against North Medford but sprained his ankle in practice on Friday. He hopes to be able to hobble around today and may yet open up against Charlie Dickman's clan at Dilboy Field tomorrow.

Jim Connors calls the balls and strikes like a veteran. He's only a young fellow just out of college and takes his umpiring seriously. Jim officiated in several high school games in New Hampshire while attending N. H. University and recently completed a course at a special umpire's school. He'll be a regular on the City League staff in the coming season.

Joe Wellington, who did the calling on the bases in Saturday's game, was right in form and no kick could be registered against any of his decisions. Joe has just recovered from an illness which tied him up all winter and has been forced to take things easy. He will not be a regular on President Prior's staff, feeling that three games a week would tax his strength too much.

What a pitcher Frank Barry would be if he could develop better control. Frank went into Saturday's game in the fourth inning and the first three putouts were on strikes. But sandwiched in with those three wiffs were as many walks, a hit batsman and an error which gave the Blue and White its third run.

It looks as though Bill Broderick will turn out another state champion at Salem High next fall. The Witches thumped Marblehead good and proper in the spring practice wind-up on Saturday, the score being 29-0. Joe Gallo, who starred at end last season, has switched to halfback and appears to be a hard boy to down. Gallo is just as elusive in grid tugs as he is on the basketball court. Under the new eligibility rule he has two more years to play in all sports.

Marino Ascerra is the first-string catcher on Fish Ellis' Bridgton Academy nine up in Maine. The Medford boy shapes up well behind the bat and is also handy with the stick, connecting twice as Team A dropped Team B in last week's practice game by an 8-4 count.

Pete Feeley's tryout with the New Haven Eastern League Club was cut quite short. New Haven has several veteran hurlers and there is no room for rookies. The team is looking for a few hard-hitting outfielders. Pete's name remains on the reserve list and he will be recalled for another tryout later in the season should the salary wing of some veteran go blooey.

Bee Fitzpatrick is going great guns for the Harvard Freshmen nine, hitting consistently and doing a nice job of field. Bee connected for a single in four attempts in Saturday's victory and also walloped a triple in another win earlier in the week. He bats lead-off.

Harry Downes is well recovered after his operation but has not the strength yet to go out and hurl a game for the Boston College nine. He played a few innings in one game, subbing at first base. Meanwhile Eddie Gallagher is right in the spotlight at the Heights and is due to face Syracuse this afternoon. Gallagher turned in a thrilling victory over Fordham on the holiday.

Forest A. C. Set Back By Pirates

The Medford Pirates mixed several errors and passed with seven hits to easily defeat the Forest A. C. on the Metropolitan Police field Saturday, 10-4. Leo Marchant did a good job on the mound for the losers but his three passed and errors by his teammates came at most critical moments. White whiffed ten of the Forest sticks. The summary:

The Pontiacs of Medford defeated the West Medford Cubs on Playstead Park Saturday morning, 14-4. Leaky was outstanding on the mound for the winners, fanning 10, passing none and keeping the ten hits made off his delivery well scattered.

Medford High Nine In Official Opening At Somerville Tomorrow

Inexperienced Blue and White Nine Meets Veteran Team To Be Put on Field by Suburban Champs—Lefty Breck Slated To Start on Mound Against Danny Lynch—Medford Faces Hard Schedule With Malden Immediately Following Somerville

The Medford High baseball team will open its season of 12 games by opposing the strong Somerville High nine tomorrow afternoon on Dilboy Field, Somerville. The Blue and White, made up of mostly inexperienced players, goes into the fray a decided underdog against the veteran material to be sent forth by Charlie Dickerman.

Coach Ernie Roberts will probably start Harold "Lefty" Breck on the hill although Bob Hudson may get the nod by a last minute change. Joe McCarthy, under study for Al Stanton last season, will start behind the bat. The rest of the lineup will remain the same as that which faced the North Medford Club in the exhibition game on Saturday.

Luke Bresnahan, acting-captain, is the only veteran on the Medford aggregation. Breck did considerable pitching in the City League and McCurdy saw much service behind the bat last season. The other boys who have taken part in Medford playground activities who are good prospects but need seasoning.

Danny Lynch, all-scholastic pitcher for two seasons, will face the Roberts' clan in the opener. Lynch has a barrel of speed and held Lynn General Electric to a pair of singles in his last start, Somerville winning that contest 2-1 in ten innings.

By far the outstanding player on the opposing collection is Captain Billy Chesterfield, another lad with an all-scholastic rating. Bill hits the apple hard and covers much ground in the center garden. He figured prominently in the 7-6 victory over the Blue and White in the first of the two-game series a year ago.

Medford's schedule is none too easy for Malden, the traditional rival, will follow Somerville, the teams meeting in the first game of the series at the Pearl street stadium on Saturday.

Civic Club Hits Hard To Down Tigers

The Civic Club of the City League recorded its second triumph of the short exhibition series by defeating the Tigers on Park street playground yesterday afternoon, 7-4. A four-run rally in the eighth inning clinched the victory for the Civics and broke up a tight game.

The lineup of the winners was greatly improved with Al Haley making his initial bow on first base and Al Shiner coming into his own on the hot corner. Both Haley and Shiner connected safely twice and turned in some fine fielding exhibitions.

Joe Doherty started on the mound for the Civics and allowed three hits and as many runs in five innings. Art Leavitt started the flipping in the sixth and was found for three safeties and only one marker. The Tigers used three pitchers, Lefty Zampell starting off, Jim Polcaro following for three innings and Vin Curcio hurling the last frame. Zampell was found for four hits and two runs and Polcaro was touched for six bingles and five runs.

Haley, Hiker, Mobilia and Polcaro socked doubles while Dodo Magennis whaled out a triple that accounted for the first run made by the Tigers. The summary:

North Medford Club Topples M. H. S. Outfit

The North Medford Club of the City League and Medford High opened their seasons in an exhibition game at the Fulton street field on Saturday afternoon, the Hillbillies winning easily, 18-8. Each team obtained 11 safe walks but the schoolboys were charged with the unbelievable number of 19 errors, the majority of which figured in the run-getting for the winners.

The high school coach, Ernie Roberts, made no attempt to win using a total of 18 players, in order to size up all in action and plan his starting lineup for the opening game with Somerville tomorrow. He used three pitchers, Lefty Breck, Bob Hudson, and Brother Fleming, all of whom did well but the support behind them was ragged. Coach Phil Sanford sent in four North Medford hurlers, Jim Mahoney starting off, Frank Barry taking up the burden in the fourth, Brother McShane in the seventh and John "Spike" Connors in the sixth.

Henry Libby, North Medford third sacker, was the outstanding stickler of the matinee, obtained three singles in seven trips to the platter. Sonny McCune and Chris Sarno socked a double each while Dodo Farnum connected for a pair of two baggers and Connie Boormeester one for the Blue and White. All five extra-base hits were to the stands in short right field. Johnny MacLean shone afield, handling nine chances flawlessly. The summary:

THE CHURCH AND THE DEPRESSION

Perhaps not in many a day has the church faced such opportunities for service as it faces today. During the period of unusual prosperity of a few years back the church, with the world, suffered a spiritual decline. Men, forgetting life's primal virtues, went out after profits, dividends, wages, as though life were wholly measured in these terms.

Now that the period of expanding incomes and prodigal spending is at an end, and the world in its straitened circumstances is doing a little reflecting, two facts are registered in many minds: the inability of material wealth and its inability to fill up life's needs. Almost overnight prosperity gave way to depression, and the wealth and plenty of thousands vanished, leaving them dazed and confused. Moreover, it has been demonstrated beyond question to many of these disillusioned that an abundance of things cannot satisfy life, they only intensify the craving for more.

Jazz, automobiles, sports, movies and the like have been substituted for those engagements and endeavors that contribute to character and soul culture; and now that economic distress has robbed the people of these ephemeral and unsatisfying joys, they are wondering where lies the way to hope and life.

This is the church's opportunity. It has the message of hope; its business is to declare the way of life. If its message of life and hope is uttered in terms of sincerity, backed by a ministry of sympathy and unselfish interest, perhaps the world in its confusion and need will listen.

THE WORLD'S LEADING EXPORTER

Instead of having lost its foreign trade prestige, as seems to be the impression in many quarters, the United States led the world in exports in 1931, according to Secretary Lamont of the United States Commerce department.

The importance of our foreign markets to farming, mining and manufacturing interest in every state of the union is apparent from the tabulation showing the distribution of exports by states. Even in a year of profound depression and drastic price declines such as 1931, the value of our domestic exports amounted to $2,377,981,786, to which total every state and territory contributed its share. Only six states had exports valued at less than $1,000,000, while thirty of the states exported merchandise to a value of $10,000,000 or more, and twelve of the latter did an overseas business of more than $60,000,000 each.

Germany, which displaced the United Kingdom as the second in rank, showed a value of $2,192,850,000. Exports from the United Kingdom (including reexports) reached only $2,069,823,000 in value. All other countries showed much smaller totals, France, in fourth place, attaining a value of only $1,192,516,000.

The significance of export trade to American labor is clear when one realizes that more than 1,400,000 workers, receiving more than 1½ billion dollars in wages were directly engaged in producing goods for export in 1931. Furthermore, there was probably an equal additional number employed indirectly in service activities and in supplying the needs of those engaged directly.

WANTED -- NEWS!

The April 4th issue of the Daily News was the first under its new management. The new staff is eager to give Arlington residents a newspaper of which they will be proud and for this reason the cooperation of the public is sought.

If you have any personal news, by all means send it to our office today. The News will gladly give attention to personal and social news with the hope of building up a page of Arlington Society News in the very near future. Much depends upon your cooperation and suggestions.

The new manager and staff are strangers in this community. Naturally it is impossible to lay a finger on all news sources immediately. The change and improvement will be gradual. In the meanwhile everyone can help by furnishing the News with information about social parties, etc. Arlington covers a very wide area and it is quite possible as well as very probable that your particular social function will be overlooked unless you notify the Daily News.

This appeal is addressed to individuals as well as to secretaries of civic, social and religious organizations. The Daily News will be non-partisan and will endeavor to treat all organizations fairly in the matter of publicity. You can help make this Arlington's favorite newspaper and fill it exclusively with Arlington news by giving a hand. Drop in at 23 Mystic street or call Arlington 1305 as soon as possible. You're sure to receive a warm welcome.

Daddy Sunshine
Club Rules

1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray of Sunshine" into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.

These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway. Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.

Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.

To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

Tells of Visit

Dear Daddy Sunshine:
I just wrote a few lines to tell you how I enjoyed the trip around the Allegheny boat. It was very interesting going through the state-rooms and the dining room and the dancing hall. But the place I thought was the most interesting was the pilot house with the compass and the steering wheel, etc. I sure did have a pleasant time.

Thank you again for the lovely letter.
Your old member,
Doris Neilson,
14 Ash street,
Medford, Mass.

We all had a great time on the trip Doris, one we always will remember. Daddy Sunshine got a big thrill out of it. Just as much as any of the children. Maybe sometime in the near future we will visit another vessel.

Marie Writes

Dear Daddy Sunshine:
I have not written for a long time but I want to tell you about my new kitten.
She has soft fluffy hair and round blue eyes. Her name is Queenie.

I wear my pin always. Thank you so much. I have a new yellow kimono.

Yours truly,
Marie Hoar,
27 Madison street,
West Medford, Mass.

Thanks Marie for writing again. Daddy Sunshine enjoyed hearing from you. Cats are great pets, aren't they? Don't forget to write every so often.

An Old Song

Dear Daddy Sunshine:
I enjoy your program very much Monday nights. It seems good to hear you and Mal again. I am going to write a poem, I hope you will like it.

The Minstrel Boy
The Minstrel Boy to the war is gone,
In the ranks of death you'll find him.

His Father's sword he has girded on,
And his wild harp slung behind him.

Land of song sang the warrior bard,
Though all the world betrays thee,

One sword at least thy rights shall guard,
One faithful harp shall praise thee!

The Minstrel fell but the foreman chain Could not bring his proud soul under

The harp he loved never spoke again,
For he tore its chords asunder,

And said, "No chains shall sully thee,
Thou soul of love and bravery

Thy songs we made for the pure and free
They shall never sound in slavery!

I hope you like it.
Amember,
Rita Fleming,
60 Ship avenue,
Medford, Mass.

Your poem Rita, is one of the most popular of oldtime songs. Daddy Sunshine likes it very much. His mother sang that song when he was quite young.

Thanks for writing and hope you write again soon.

Eleven Deaths
As Result Of
Auto Accidents

Eleven persons died as the result of motor vehicle accidents in Massachusetts during the week of April 15-22, the same number as in the previous week and eight less than in the corresponding period one year ago.

Registrar of Motor Vehicles Morgan T. Ryan is quoted as saying:

"I am very glad to report today a substantial reduction in motorcar deaths during the past week, as compared with the third week of April last year. There are now fewer cars on our roads, but that does not account for the reduction of fatalities of five less adults and three less children. The total killed this year to April 1 stands at 225. That compares with 214 deaths during the corresponding four months of a year ago, and constitutes a 5 per cent increase due mostly to the higher number of pedestrians' deaths this year.

"This past week, however, was an exception with only three pedestrians victims as against seven who were motorists. Three of the latter, moreover, were occupants of trucks, who either fell or jumped out while the trucks were in motion. That particular type of accident frequently occurs, and perhaps would be prevented by the placing of conspicuous signs on all trucks warning of the danger of so falling or jumping."

Sixty-six persons were convicted last week for operating while under the influence of liquor, eight more than in the preceding week. Nine were committed to jail, five from District Courts and four from Superior Courts.

Four persons were convicted for the second time within six years in District Courts for operating while under the influence of liquor. One was given a jail sentence and appealed, two were committed to jail and one paid a fine.

There were 1296 licenses and registrations suspended or revoked last week, 237 less than in the week before and 236 more than in the same period last year. Of these 60 were for driving after drinking intoxicating liquor and 970 on account of insurance cancellations.

Commercial Vehicles
Make Fine Record

The 12,641 commercial vehicles competing in the fourth state-wide commercial vehicle contest sponsored by the Governor's Committee on street and highway safety turned in the best driving record of the year during the month of March.

With the exposure to accidents greatly increased by a sharp jump in the number of hours of operation during the month as compared to the two previous months, accidents were held to a minimum. At the same time the percentage of both fleets as a whole and individual vehicles which went through the month without an accident reached the highest point in the history of the current competition.

With 384 fleets comprising 12,641 vehicles, competing in March there were only 599 accidents reported as compared to 781 accidents in February and 573 in January. While the number of accidents in March was higher than the January total, the hours of operation rose from 2,967,584 in January to 3,080,496 in March, leaving the accident rate for the month of March at 19.00, the same as in January, but markedly lower than the high figure of 27.00 reported in February.

The fact that those accidents which did occur last month were confined to a small part of the vehicles in the contest was revealed by the no-accident percentage which showed 95.2 per cent of the 12,641 vehicles going through the month without an accident of any sort, while 232 of the 384 fleets, or fractionally more than 60 per cent, also had clean slates for the month.

At the same time the personal injury decreased from that of previous months, only one out of every eight accidents being serious enough to involve personal injury, as compared to one in every seven in the previous two months this year.

Several "repeaters" showed up among the seven group winning fleets of the month, the group winners being chosen each month on the same basis that the final winners for the entire year's contest are chosen—that is, the fleet in each group with the lowest accident rate per 100,000 hours of operation. In case of two fleets in the same group going through the month without an accident, the one with the greatest hours of operation gets the choice.

COSTLY ERRORS

on base, and threw to first, while Haley scored. Fisher was thrown out at first.

Crovo singled to center, Hendrick inspired by this, dropped another near where Crovo's had landed. Wright lifted an easy one which was gathered in. Harding and Merrill added to the depression by striking out. Score 10-0.

Third Inning
Greely getting in the spirit of the affair, opened his legs to let a hard one by Dalrymple go through. Trying to steal second he was caught by Greely, after a sweet throw by Wright. Greely was thrown out a first by Buckley after a hard stop and a throw over, when he was off balance. Crovo got philanthropic again and passed Foristal. He got wild again and succeeded in hitting O'Connell who, not seriously hurt went to first advancing Foristal to second. A forced play at second made the third out.

Not wishing to have Crovo get all the satisfaction Haley bounced one off the broad back of Al. Lane. Greely was robbed of a hit by DeLeon who made a nice catch in deep left center. Buckley took three practice swings and the Umpire calls him out. Clarke connected but happened to hit just where Dalrymple was standing. Score 10-0.

Fourth Inning
Again Crovo got kindhearted and walked DeLeon. Ingalls was thrown out of first by Buckley who was playing a real ball game. DeLeon went to second on the out. Crovo hits Fisher, putting two on. Giarla dropped one in short center scoring DeLeon and advancing Fisher to second. 2 out, 2 on. Wright came through again to leave one over Clarke's head, both runners broke camp and advanced a base. Dalrymple's single scored both runners. Still 2 out, 2 on. Crovo hated to see one bag empty so he passed Foristal to start filling the bases again. Coach Ostegen had seen enough so he yanked Crovo, putting him out in the garden, and put in Werner.

Crovo had two strikes on the batter, so "Rafe" threw one ball, a hook, and the batter fanned. He got a great hand from the crowd.

Crovo singled to right field, and Hendrick followed suit with a hit which should have gone for more bases, but for the autos. Wright found the ball hard enough for a sacrifice advancing both runners. Harding singled to second and a wild peg by Giarla, allowed Crovo to score. Merrill swung three times and hit nothing. Werner dropped a clean single in short left scoring Hendricks, Harding attempting to score was caught by a perfect throw by DeLeon from left field. This ended the brief rally. Score 13-2.

Fifth Inning

Haley opened with a hit which was too far over for Buckley to get on third, DeLeon bunted and should have been out at first but Clarke was getting lonesome and, wanting someone to talk to, dropped the ball, and DeLeon was safe at first. Falsbom sacrificed, Haley scoring on the out. Ingalls was thrown out at first, while it was brought to the Arlington's boys attention that DeLeon was scoring on the out. Fisher was thrown out at first.

Haley still taking after Crovo, passed Greely and Buckley, and getting wilder hit Clarke. It looked good for Arlington with three on and no out. Crovo trying to hit a home run, fanned. Getting exuberant over striking the great man out, Haley beamed Hendrick, forcing in a run. The pitcher was in a tough spot, but Mahoney very obligingly hit in to a double play and the inning ended. Score 15-3.

Sixth Inning

Giarla hit into deep shortstop and beat Greely's throw to first. Dalrymple sacrificed, advancing Giarla. Foristal flied out to Crovo who made a pretty running catch. Giarla advanced to third on an error by Mahoney. Werner struck out O'Connell.

Harding fanned again. Merrill singled to center, a hard hit ball, one of the few. Greely doubled into the parked cars, Merrill only reaching third on fast fielding. Werner, and Buckley then struck out. Score 15-2.

Seventh Inning

Haley flied out to Greely. DeLeon flied out to Hendrick. Falsbom hit a hard one at Greely who made a sensational catch, retiring the side.

Clarke was thrown out at first. Crovo, and Hendrick cooled the catcher with two fans.

Eighth Inning

Ingalls was thrown out at first. Fisher was passed. Giarla flied out. Dalrymple got a safe hit. Hendrick pulled down a long fly by Foristal.

Mahoney unable to duck a wild ball thrown by Haley was hit hard on the back, but was able to run the bases. Harding fanned yet. Merrill struck out. The pitcher showed signs of weakening and Werner got a pass. Greely also got a pass. Haley was done and Ingalls in right field took his place. Buckley the first man to face the new pitcher got a pass, forcing Mahoney for another run. Clarke got a timely single scoring Greely and Werner. Ingalls a little nervous tossed one close to Crovo who stuck his hand out, the ball hitting it and he got to first base, filling the bases, with two out. Hendrick struck out. Final out. Score 15-6.

Ninth Inning

O'Connell hit a fly to third which Buckley took in. Haley beat out a throw to first but the decision looked doubtful as there was some protest. DeLeon singled to left field, DeLeon was a little too ambitious and the Arlington team woke up to the fact that there were two Winthrop men on second base. The two runners

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

Presenting the Four Mills Brothers in person on the stage, together with Claudette Colbert and Edmund Lowe in "Misleading Lady" on the screen, and a miniature revue "Manhattan", the Metropolitan again offers a big headline program.

The Four Mills Brothers are billed as "Four Men and a Guitar", and to radio fans little description other than this is necessary. They imitate perfectly various musical instruments, and are literally a "band without instruments"—the only instrument being the guitar.

"Misleading Lady" is played on the stage success which played New York for many months, and features Claudette Colbert and Edmund Lowe with a cast which includes Stuart Edwin, Robert Strange, and many other favorites of stage and screen. In the story, Claudette Colbert plays Lowe for a dupe to make him propose in order to win a wager. He retaliates by kidnapping her and breaking her spirit with the help of chains and an escaped lunatic. Before the final scene is allowed to disclose an all's well-and-happy solution, a reporter, two drunks with a mystery they never quite spill, an evening lover, and two other visitors from the asylum, are involved in complications that transpire in a mountain rendezvous.

On the stage in "Manhattan" revue will be Jack Siler, "Sightings of New York"; Swor and Goode, black-faced comedians; Wilfred Du Bois, Jack Lester and the Sunlight Beauties.

Fabien Seitzky conducts the Grand Orchestra in an overture of Italian music. Ranny Weeks appears in his 14th week with a repertoire of negro spirituals; and Arthur Martel presents a new organ number "Budding Song-Smiths."

"came too" about the same time and they both started for different bases. By this time, Arlington had stopped fumbling the ball. Haley had scored and the two runners were running back and forth until they were eliminated by the process of running them down.

Mahoney flied out. Harding whiffed three times. Merrill was thrown out at first. Final out. Final score 15-6.

St. Martha Court,
302, M. C. O. F. Has Active Membership

Joe Olsen must have been a member of Medford High track team. He has a wonderful lead in the race for honors in the membership campaign competition of St. Martha Court, 302,
M. C. O. F.

In order for news to attract Mary Needham's attention these days it must have a Martha's Vineyard angle. The vice chief ranger calls that day lost that brings no news from the Cape.

Miss Eleanor Deery and her committee have been burning the midnight oil trying to complete plans for the proposed supper, entertainment and dance of the court will sponsor in the near future.

A degree team composed of members of St. Martha Court would undoubtedly win all honors in the organization for youth, vivacity and beauty.

Probably the most enthusiastic supporter of the court in Forestry is Mrs. Catherine Kemp, deputy high chief ranger. Though president of the Past Chief Rangers' association of Boston and past chief ranger of Benedict Court of Somerville, most of her efforts are now being put into the success of "302."

Chief Ranger Leo F. Brine will represent the court at the annual session, May 25 and 26, at the New Ocean House, Swampscott.
Vice Chief Ranger Mary Needham will be the alternate.

Mae LaJesse is still waiting to see "some of the men from Springfield."

Francis Daily has just been appointed chairman of the newly-formed Ways and Means Committee on which are several of the aggressive workers. Much is expected from this group during the next few months.

If the tentative plans for a joint Chaplain's night with Fellow Court 300, materialize, Patricia Sullivan may entertain with a terpsichorean feature.

The final report of the court membership campaign committee will be given at the regular meeting, tomorrow evening, in St. James' Parish Hall, Fourth street. Several other important matters will be discussed.
After the business session, the Good of the Order committee, headed by Mrs. J. Brown, will present an entertainment and serve a collation.

Following the close of the membership drive, plans will be made for a class initiation of the candidates just enrolled.

Walter (Bero) Ahern, 21 Powder House road and Lorraine Tessier of Winchester, were runners up in a Collegiate contest held in a Revere Ballroom.

M. C. O. F. Big
Membership Drive
To Close Saturday

With only a few days remaining before the State-wide extension campaign of the Massachusetts Catholic Order of Foresters officially closes, local units are working earnestly to secure the assigned quotas of new members.
Results to date, according to information received today from headquarters of the organization, 17 Worcester street, Boston, have been most satisfactory, yet the 6,000 mark has not been reached.

During the remaining week, officials of the order are confident that the objective will be gained.
Members of the High Standing Committee and district deputy high chief rangers will continue their visitations until the finale on Saturday.

Some local courts that have no regular meetings, scheduled for this week have arranged for special meetings and socials in a final attempt to secure new members.

High Chief Ranger Joseph A.
Cahalan and High Secretary-Treasurer Joseph J. Forrester waxed enthusiastically yesterday after completing a resume of the achievements of subordinate units since the drive opened April 1.
"Once again our members have responded to the clarion call," High Chief Ranger Cahalan said.
"I realize that today many who are desirous of joining a fraternal insurance organization hesitate because of economic conditions. On the other hand, these are times when many more fully realize the advantages of protection, such as our Order affords, and the social benefits derived.
"I feel confident," he said in conclusion, "that when the campaign ends on Saturday success will have crowned our efforts."

—Raymond Dolan, Frederick
Kee, John Douglas, Fredrick Lar-
